IMMEDIATE NOTICE.

BODY LANGUAGE EXPERT TO PROVIDE FUN FEEDBACK ON BODY LANGUAGE OF STARS DURING GOLDEN GLOBE AWARDS THIS SUNDAY

Patti Wood, Atlanta-based body language expert and author will be watching the stars with the rest of the world during the Golden Globe Awards, but Patti will be looking for signs of stress, confidence, happiness, good and bad romances, lies and the telltale truth. Her fun comments will be broadcast on a Midwest radio station following the ceremony, but Patti's comments will be available to you by calling her at 404-371-8228 for an interview.

Patti Wood was recently seen commenting on the body language of Bush and others involved in the weapon's check in Iraq as a guest on "Your World with Neil Cavuto" on Fox News. See other assessments by Patti at www.pattiwood.net as well as training programs Patti offers in sales, presentations and body language. She believes behavior profiling is more reliable than racial profiling. You can talk to her about that at 404-371-8228.

Patti Wood, owner of Communication Dynamics, is quoted often in Us Weekly, assessing the body language of the stars. She has appeared in publications such as Cosmopolitan, Women First, YM, Us, InTouch and others. Patti is described by her clients as a dynamic, high-energy, powerhouse presenter. She has trained professionals from many of the world's top corporations in reading body language. Patti has also helped law enforcement officers hone their abilities to read deception cues in interviews and interrogations; and lawyers from Coca-Cola, judges and court personnel to read body language for negotiations and courtroom behavior.
